Review & Approval of Minutes

The minutes from the July 31, 2018, DPAC meeting were reviewed and approved by all members. Motion to approve by Marvin Mailey and seconded by Chief William Bryson.

Open Issues

Chief Robert Tracy discussed Implicit Bias Training and some of his concerns. The following focuses were discussed: Who will set the standards for the training? How many hours will be needed?

The topic of Implicit Bias being included in COPT training and CALEA were discussed.

Secretary Coupe and Christopher Klein are going to reach out to Chief Horsman and follow up at the next DPAC meeting.

CJC Committee Update

Memberships have been scaled down, and an administrative support role person to help entice smaller agencies to get accredited was discussed. Secretary Coupe and Christopher Klein will be meeting with Chris Kervick on this matter. An update will be discussed at our next DPAC meeting.

New Business

A Vice- Chair was elected, Chief Marvin Mailey of Dover Police Department. All members were in favor and unanimously voted Chief Mailey as the new Vice Chair.

Strategies to get more agencies to become accredited were discussed, with a target of Camden, Seaford and Laurel Police Departments. Christopher Klein will send an e-mail on the benefits of Accreditation to Carl Luft to distribute.

Adjournment

Meeting was adjourned at 2:30 pm.
